

CONSTITUTION OF SPARK CLUB

Membership:

Talented student having some prerequisite knowledge about programming are selected out of all years at NIT Rourkela and inducted as the members of the club. Students are given multiple opportunities for induction into the club. The recruiting procedures will be announced beforehand, and it may vary for the purpose of the required stature in the club. The president's and the faculty advisor's decision will be final and binding to all.

Office:

Every member of the club have equal responsibility and its his/her prime duty to preserve the integrity and dignity of the club. No member is smaller in stature than other, but few members have Specific duties in addition to others.

Specific Duties:

President - to look after the well-being of its member and take the authorities control and manage all the people in working together.

Vice-President - to assist the president in all matters.

Secretary- to work in sync with the SAC and provide the SAC with the events planned for throughout the Semester, and would inform the same for any change in the plan.

Treasurer- to take care of the funds allocated to the club. He is responsible for estimating the running expenses and provides a budget for purchase of new equipment's and repair of old equipment's.

Chief Coordinator - to look into the overall activities of the members and manage events in the clubs.

Coordinators - to assist the Chief Coordinators in all matters.

Club Meetings:

There will be a GBM(General Body Meeting) in every 15 days (alternate Saturdays).It is mandatory for all the club members(also the final year members) to be present in a GBM.

Chief-Coordinators and Coordinators can call for some emergency meetings in between two successive meetings if required.

Dismissal of members:

Student standing in the way of clubs progress and/or found to be hindrance to the fulfillment of the clubs aims and objectives shall be dismissed from the club with prior notification and with the consent of the members with specific duties. Members of the club who remain absent for more than 3 consecutive meetings, without prior notice will be out of the club.

The member with specific duties holds veto power in this case.

Students engaged in ragging, impediment to team spirit and nuisance to the club shall be dealt appropriately.

Amendments:

The above articles may be amended as and when required by absolute majority vote of the club membership. All members shall receive advance notice of the proposed amendments well in advance before the meeting.